

The UC San Diego Division of Arts and Humanities strives to create a community where all students, staff and faculty members are supported, valued and treated with dignity. This requires prioritizing Equity, Diversity and Inclusion in the access and representation, climate and culture, and educational mission of every department, institute and program in the division.

We believe everyone should have tools at their disposal to help build and sustain the division and the UC San Diego we wish to inhabit. This one-sheet is the start of a list of campus-based resources and guidelines to begin assisting all of us in this collective vision.
